Introducing...

LEAVE A LEGACY MONTH

The Feast of Don Guanella takes place in October with several unique celebrations to honor our founder and to promote this wonderful mission. To honor the legacy of our patron saint, we have chosen to make October Leave a Legacy Month! This will be an opportunity to learn about how you can make a lasting impact for the lives we touch each and every day. Please stay tuned for more information about our special Leave a Legacy Event in October.

You can learn more about joining the St. Luigi Guanella Legacy Society by visiting dgdpcommunities.org/legacy.

UPCOMING EVENTS

June 19th – 7:00 p.m.
Family Town Hall Meeting at Divine Providence Village

June and July
Employee Recognition Luncheons

August 15th – 10:00 a.m.
Mass at Our Lady of Fatima for the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

September 18th – 7:00 p.m.
Family Town Hall Meeting at Divine Providence Village

October 24th – 11:00 a.m.
Feast of Don Guanella Mass
Fulbright International students volunteered with Don Guanella and Divine Providence residents twice – in March and May 2019. They spent quality time with our residents and enjoyed (some for the first time) playing Bingo together. The Fulbright Scholars represented 18 different countries.

SHOWCASING OUR VOLUNTEERS
at the Communities of Don Guanella and Divine Providence

We are so lucky to have so many supporters who share their gifts of time, talent, and treasure with the men and women we serve each day. We’d like to spotlight and thank those people who give of themselves – the many wonderful volunteers who help out in so many diverse ways. Thanks to volunteers from Bob’s Furniture, SAP, Trinity Health of Newtown Square, St. Anastasia’s, St. Joe’s Prep, Cardinal O’Hara High School, Archbishop Carroll High School, Notre Dame de Namur, Marple Newtown High School, Villanova University, the Scouts of Marple Newtown and more.

CELEBRATING HOLIDAYS IN STYLE

Please take a look at some of the fun holiday parties our residents shared with friends, families, and volunteers!

The men and women of Don Guanella and Divine Providence had a busy week leading up to our St. Valentine’s Dance! They went browsing for new rides at the Philly Auto Show, practiced their equestrian skills at Thorncroft, and danced a little with Donna from Bayada to warm up for the Valentine’s Dance.

During St. Patrick’s Day, students from Cardinal O’Hara High School and Irish Dancers joined some residents for a festive celebration.

We had some special visitors for Easter! Lots of smiles and treats were shared among our residents.

OUR VERY OWN EDDIE INCE
at CCA Night @ the Sixers!

The Communities of Don Guanella and Divine Providence were part of the festivities at Catholic Charities Night with the Philadelphia Sixers on Wednesday, April 10th! Before the start of the game, Eddie was honored on-court with his own custom jersey and he, his brother and friends got the chance to meet some all-star players. Thanks to everyone who supported CCA Night at the Sixers!
